The Illinois School for the Deaf has developed the Answering Service in Spanish with the purpose of providing appropriate services to our Spanish speaking families. The goal of these services is that our Spanish speaking families can have direct contact with the school in their native language.

To have access to this service follow these steps:

✓Call Mario (217)320-3379

Mario will answer the phone or you can leave your name and phone number and Mario will call you back.

✓Email

gmacho17@comcast.net

The Answering Service in Spanish also provides written translations of forms and letters used by the Illinois School for the Deaf.
